OPES PRIME UPDATE

Following enquires from several shareholders, the Company wishes to confirm that none of the interests of Range directors in Range shares are held under margin lending facilities operated by the collapsed Australian margin lending and stock broking group, Opes Prime.

Furthermore, Range is aware that like many other junior resource companies, some of its shares (held by non-director related interests) may be held under margin lending facilities operated by Opes Prime and subject to whatever sale arrangements are decided to be pursued by the receivers/administrators of the Opes Prime companies. However, based on current information obtained by the Company, Range believes that only a relatively small number of its shares are held through such facilities, being less than 1% of its issued shares.

For and on behalf of the Board.
